

October

NEWSLETTER

LEARNING FOCUS:

All About Us Week 4-

In continuation of our unit of study we will be discussing who we are and who are the people in our lives. Our focus question for this week is: What makes my family important and unique? Talk to your children about who are the people in their family and why they are special.

Fall Festival:

This Thursday October 31st, we will be having our Fall Festival. Children may wear their favorite outfit or costume to school. Please keep in mind that costumes should allow children to use the bathroom with ease. Families are invited join the children for fun fall activities. Please let us know if you will be joining us!

Dual Language News:

We would love for you to partake in sharing with us about where your families are from. You may want to include traditions, music, traditional food and more!

IMPORTANT DATES:

10/29-

- Parent Workshop at 2:45 pm

10/31-

- Fall Festival Parade at 8:45am - 9:10
- Rooftop Fall Festivities
Pre-K 113 & 115 :
9:15 – 10:05
Pre-K 114 & 116:
10:10 – 11:00

REMINDERS:

- Please remember to send a snack and water bottle every day.
- Please make sure your child is dressed accordingly.
- Please label your child's sweaters, scarves and gloves.
- Parents please remember that our day begins at 8:20 am and ends at 2:40 pm. We kindly ask that you help your child in the mornings and have them independently transition to breakfast in a timely manner; as we need to continue with our daily schedule. Thank you so much for your help!

NOTE FROM THE TEACHER:

This week we will be reading:

- I Love Saturdays y Domingos by Alma Flor Ada
- Families, Families, Families by Suzanne Lang & Max Lang
- The Family Book by Todd Parr
- Are You My Mother? By P.D. Eastman
- Families by Ann Morris

